

OVERVIEW

Beyond the Campus Store: The Future of the University Campus Store and the NACS, 2021-2031

Changes in our education and commerce industries are reshaping how the campus store fits into the lives of students and universities. NACS is looking to for insight and to better understand the multiple landscapes of the future and how it can best position itself to provide value to a vast network of campus stores that universities, students, and professors so much rely on.

LEARN MORE

GOALS

Provide insight and depth into the key, issues, drivers, and uncertainties that most likely could impact the future of NACS for the next 10 years.

Develop and implement a living library of articles/scans that will help the NACS monitor and watch for disruptive trends that will affect the industry for the next 25 years.

Help seed, nurture, and champion a culture of strategic foresight at NACS so that the deliverables and insights we provide can continue to be built and iterated upon from within the organization in the future

PROCESS AND SCHEDULE

Discovery

Initial Interview with 3-5 stakeholders to get a better understanding of the domain and challenges NACS is facing

EDIT

SCHEDULE

1 Week

DELIVERABLE

N/A

NEXT

DELIVERABLES

In addition to the items listed in the above table we will provide a final report, in electronic, print, and interactive online versions that contains all of our research in an easily digestible way.

COST

$45,000